

Dress Code Policy

During a Stated or Special Communication of Myrtle Lodge #145, the following will be the accepted and required dress code for attendance by all Members.

1. Full length jeans or slacks; as long as they are in good repair.
2. Shirt with a collar, dress shirt, or sweater, but no t-shirt or sweatshirt.
3. Boots or closed toe shoes and socks

Brethren with medical cause or other conditions which may preclude being properly attired are not subject to this Policy, with the preapproval of the Worshipful Master. Military dress and other work related attire which does not comply to policy guidelines may be allowed with permission of the Worshipful Master.

The dress code for special events (Past Master Dinner, Installation) will be specified by the Worshipful Master and will be appropriate for the scheduled event.
